Parental Control Summary

• DVD discs have a PARENTAL CONTROL assigned to the disc. The range of PARENTAL CONTROL is from 1 to 8. The player can be set in a similar way.

- For instance, if there is a parental level set to 8, it will play all discs. If the player's parental level is set below 8, only discs with a lower or equal parental level will play. For example if the player is set to 5, only discs with parental control ratings of 5, 4, 3, 2, & 1 will play.

- To play a higher rated disc you must change the player's level rating to a higher number.

- Some discs, that generally are suitable for most audiences are rated at level 2. However, there might be scenes, included on the disc, rated 5 or 7 (not suitable for children).

- Alternative scenes with lower rating are included on the disc. The unit will play the highest rated scene that the parental setting allows. A section of the disc can have several different sequences that vary in PARENTAL CONTROL level. The player will choose the appropriate section depending on the parental control level set in the player's menu.

- This allows parent(s) control of the content of discs without any indication that censorship has occurred.

- The meaning of the levels 1 to 8 varies depending upon the country and the type of content on the disc.
