Introduction

Features

GARMIN Data Cards

The USB Data Card Programmer utilizes GARMIN Data Cards. Available in five sizes:

8 MB Data Card

16 MB Data Card

32 MB Data Card

64 MB Data Card

128 MB Data Card

Check the GARMIN website or see your GARMIN dealer for availability of these data cards.

Installation of the USB Data Card Programmer and Device Drivers

1. Connect the USB connector on the end of the Programmer cable to the USB port on the back of the computer. Most computers have two USB Ports. Either port will work. The computer does not need to be turned off when connecting or disconnecting the Programmer.

Use care to insert the USB connector correctly. Do not force the connection as this may damage the USB port on your computer or the USB connector on the Programmer.

After connecting the Programmer to your computer you must install the device drivers from the CD-ROM provided with the Programmer.

2. Insert the Programmer CD-ROM into your computer's CD-ROM drive.
3. The computer will recognize the Programmer as a USB device and open the Add New Hardware Wizard and search for the device drivers. Click on "Next". If, for some reason, the Wizard does not run automatically, click the Start button and select "Settings" and then "Control Panel". Double click on the "Add New Hardware" icon.
4. The next screen will ask you if you want it to search for the best driver for your device or if you want to display a list to choose from. Select "Search for the best driver for your device" and click on "Next".

Installing the MapSource Software Upgrade

5. The next screen will display a list of locations to search for the new drivers. Select CD-ROM Device from the list and click on "Next". Make certain all other boxes remain unchecked.
6. The Wizard will search for the driver and then display a window to tell you it is ready to install. Click on "Next". You may see a "Copying Files..." screen which tells you the file cannot be found. Choose Root Directory of the CD-ROM drive if not already there, and to try copying again. Click "OK" to continue.
7. When installation is complete a window will display that shows the device name (GARMIN USB Data Card Programmer) and states the driver installation is finished. Click on "Finish".
8. A final window will appear telling you that operating software for the Card Programmer is being installed. Leave the CD-ROM in the CD-ROM drive to complete the MapSource Software Upgrade.

To Install the MapSource Software Upgrade including USB Data Card Programmer Support :

1. Insert the Programmer CD-ROM into your computer's CD-ROM drive.
2. Click the Start button and select "Run..."
3. Then type in the drive letter of your CD-ROM drive followed by the MapSource Update file name: MSUPDATE.EXE. (For example d:\msupdate.exe)
4. Press ENTER and follow on-screen instructions.
5. Open MapSource and check the "About" box in the help file to determine that you have successfully installed Version 3.04 or later.
6. Follow instructions contained in the MapSource Addendum provided with the USB Data Card Programmer for transfer of map

To Install a GARMIN Data Card:

1. Insert the Data Card (Label up and pin connector end first) into the card slot in the Programmer (picture to the right).
2. Be certain to install the Data Card completely into the slot to be certain pin connections have been made.
3. To remove the Data Card, pull directly away from the Programmer using the extractor handle on the Data Card.

Use care not to remove the Data Card from the Programmer until data transfer has been completed to avoid possible loss of data.

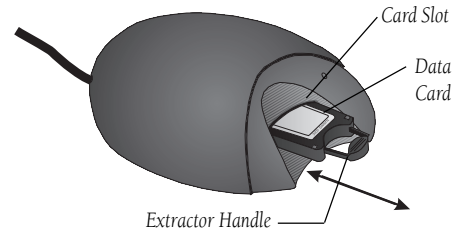

Disconnecting the Programmer from Your Computer

After the USB Data Card Programmer has been successfully installed (hardware and software), disconnecting and reconnecting the Programmer can be performed without additional installation steps.

1. Before disconnecting the Programmer, be certain that no data transfer is in progress.
2. Unplug the USB connector from your computer. You do not need to turn the computer off before removing or inserting the USB connector.
